

EXTERNSHIP IN CHILD PSYCHOLOGY

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND At College Park COUNSELING CENTER 2007-2008

Training Program

The University of Maryland-College Park Counseling Center is accepting applications for its 2007-2008 Externship Program in Child Psychology. The externship is offered by the University Parent Consultation and Child Evaluation Service (UPCCES), which provides psychological services to children, adolescents and their families. We offer supervised training in psychological assessment, individual and group therapy, parent counseling, and teacher consultation. Training is both clinic and school-based. Possible school-based training sites are the on-campus preschools and a local high school. Supervision is highly valued. The externship is 16 hours/week.

The Counseling Center

The University Parent Consultation and Child Evaluation Service (UPCCES) is one of the divisions of the Counseling Center. It has been part of the Center since 1964, and provides services for University-connected families.

Applicant Qualifications
