

How to download lecture notes

1. Select "Course Notes" from the Main Menu.

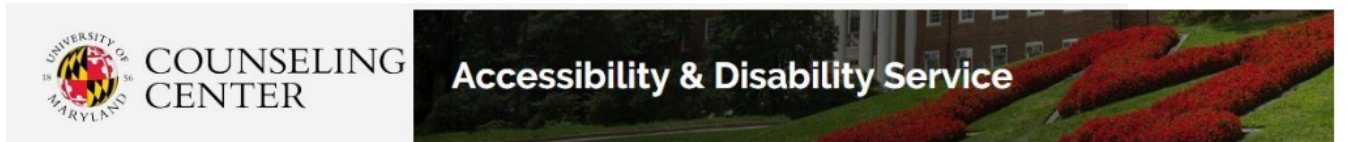

The screenshot shows the website header with the University of Maryland Counseling Center logo and the title "Accessibility & Disability Service". Below the header is a navigation bar with a "Main menu" link and a "log out" link. The main content area displays a welcome message and a menu of options: "Book a test", "Accommodation Letters", "Course Notes" (circled in red), and "Note Takers". At the bottom, contact information for the ADS Main Office is provided.

2. Select "Courses/Notes" from the Welcome page.

The screenshot shows the website header with the University of Maryland Counseling Center logo and the title "Accessibility & Disability Service". Below the header is a navigation bar with a "Main menu" link and a "log out" link. The main content area displays a welcome message and a menu of options: "Courses / notes" (circled in red), "FAQ", "Submit a comment", and "Help". Below the menu is a heading "Welcome to the ADS Note Taking Module" and a paragraph of text explaining the page's purpose and providing instructions for students with approved note-taking accommodations. At the bottom, contact information for the ADS Note Taking module is provided.

- Under “My lecture notes,” select “Notes” for the course for which you wish to download notes. Be aware that you must select a Note Taker for a specific course before you can download notes for that course.
