

How to Tell ADS You No Longer Want to be a Note Taker

1. Select the Note Taker icon from the Online Portal main menu.

The screenshot shows the main menu of the Accessibility & Disability Service. It includes a header with the University of Maryland Counseling Center logo and the text 'Accessibility & Disability Service'. Below the header is a navigation bar with a 'Main menu' link. The main content area says 'Welcome to the Online Student Services' and 'Please select an option from the menu below:'. There are four menu items: 'Book a test', 'Accommodation Letters', 'Course Notes', and 'Note Takers'. The 'Note Takers' icon, which shows a notepad and pencil, is circled in red. At the bottom, there is contact information for the ADS Main Office.

2. A new page will display, that lists all courses you have applied to be a note taker.

The screenshot shows the 'Notetaker Courses' page. It has a header with the University of Maryland Counseling Center logo and a navigation bar with links for 'Courses / notes', 'Profile', 'FAQ', 'Submit a comment', and 'Help'. The main content area is titled 'Notetaker Courses' and includes a 'Show term:' dropdown set to 'Summer Session 2017' and a 'Refresh' button. Below this is a table with three columns: 'My courses', 'I have been selected', and 'My lecture notes'. The table lists several courses, including HLTH 377, HLTH 371, KNES 461, PHSC 415, MIEH 400, and University 901. Below the table is a button 'Add a new potential course' and a section for 'I am no longer available to take notes for the following course:' with a dropdown menu and a 'Remove this course' button. At the bottom, there is a 'Confidentiality Agreement Reminder' box with the title 'Accessibility and Disability Service (ADS) Confidentiality Statement for Note Takers' and a list of confidentiality requirements.

My courses	I have been selected	My lecture notes
HLTH 377Lecture 0101	No	Upload sample notes
HLTH 371Lecture 0201	No	Upload sample notes
KNES 461Lecture 0101	No	Upload sample notes
PHSC 415Lecture 0101	No	Upload sample notes
MIEH 400Lecture 0102	No	Upload sample notes
University 901 UNIV 901 001	Yes	Upload lecture notes

3. Underneath the list of your classes, and above the Confidentiality Statement for Note Takers there is a section that states “I am no longer available to take notes for the following course:”. Use the drop down menu to select the course you are no longer able to take notes for.

The screenshot shows the 'Notetaker Courses' page. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Courses / notes', 'Profile', 'FAQ', 'Submit a comment', and 'Help'. Below this is the 'Notetaker Courses' section with a 'Show term: Summer Session 2017' dropdown and a 'Refresh' button. A table lists courses with columns for 'My courses', 'I have been selected', and 'My lecture notes'. Below the table is a section titled 'I am no longer available to take notes for the following course:' with a dropdown menu. The dropdown menu is open, showing a list of courses, with 'University 901 UNIV 901 001' selected and circled in red. Below the dropdown is a 'Remove this course' button. The page also features a 'Confidentiality Agreement Reminder' section with the title 'Accessibility and Disability Service (ADS) Confidentiality Statement for Note Takers' and a list of terms.

As an approved Note Taker for the Counseling Center's Accessibility and Disability Service (ADS), I understand that:

- I will not access any personally identifiable information via documents, files, data, notes, records, electronic materials or verbal information relevant to any student with whom I am sharing course lecture notes.
- ADS will not disclose the identity of any student with whom I am sharing notes. If a student's identity is revealed to me, I will take the necessary measures to protect and safeguard their identity and associated information.
- I will not seek to access personally identifying information for any student with whom I am sharing lecture notes.
- I will not reveal the identity or any information to others about why and with whom I am sharing notes.
- Failure to meet expectations regarding confidentiality as outlined in this agreement may result in the termination of my appointment as an approved Note Taker and removal from the approved Note Taker roster.
